

Introducing

KELLY ROWLAND FOR FABLETICS

I'm so excited to unveil my new capsule collection with Fabletics!

My career as a performer was the inspiration behind this collection. The way it feels, how it looks on, how I'm moving in it... it's all me, influenced by different things that I've been inspired by or worked on over the last 20 years.

This collection is strong, bold, fun and unapologetic. When you put it on, I want you to feel fearless, sexy, alive, and like you're going to conquer the world.

For me, activewear is part of my mindset to get ready to work out—when I put the outfit on, I'm halfway there. When I'm getting to the gym, I'm almost there.

And when I'm there, it's time to put the work in.

It's a new year. Time to put the work in—and I hope this collection inspires you to do exactly that.
